

To: Gabriella Tile

As an Association Management Company it is not our policy to recommend various contractors to our individual homeowners. However, it has been our pleasure to recommend your company.

We have received many accolades from your customers who live in a homeowner association or a condo association which we manage. Your staff is courteous and your work is meticulous. We are happy to continue to recommend your company as the needs may arise.

Thanks again for your prompt response.

AMD Management Services, LLC